

Scott L. Jacobs prepares to paint a portrait of Barack Obama in downtown Ventura on Sunday, October 26, 2008. Jacobs said he wanted to do something positive during the campaign by painting the protrait of the candidate he supports. Ventura County voters have selected the winner in every presidential election since 1920, except one. In 1976 they backed Gerald Ford instead of Jimmy Carter.